Two Long-Term Programs Strengthening Financial Resilience in Israel

Year-long support | Real outcomes | Proven impact

Oxygen" Initiative — a joint program by The Infrastructure NGO and Citizen Impact.

IDF Soldiers — Financial Resilience Program

A national, year-long program helping active-duty soldiers move from financial hardship to stability

Partners

Citizen Impact • The Infrastructure NGO • Bank of Israel • Ministry of Defense

Class Action Fund • Bank Hapoalim

What participants receive

- ☑ 12 months of continuous, personalized support
- ☑ Financial assessment + tailored action plan
- ☑ Human guidance + AI-driven tools
- ☑ Income growth • debt management • expense optimization • rights realization

Scale

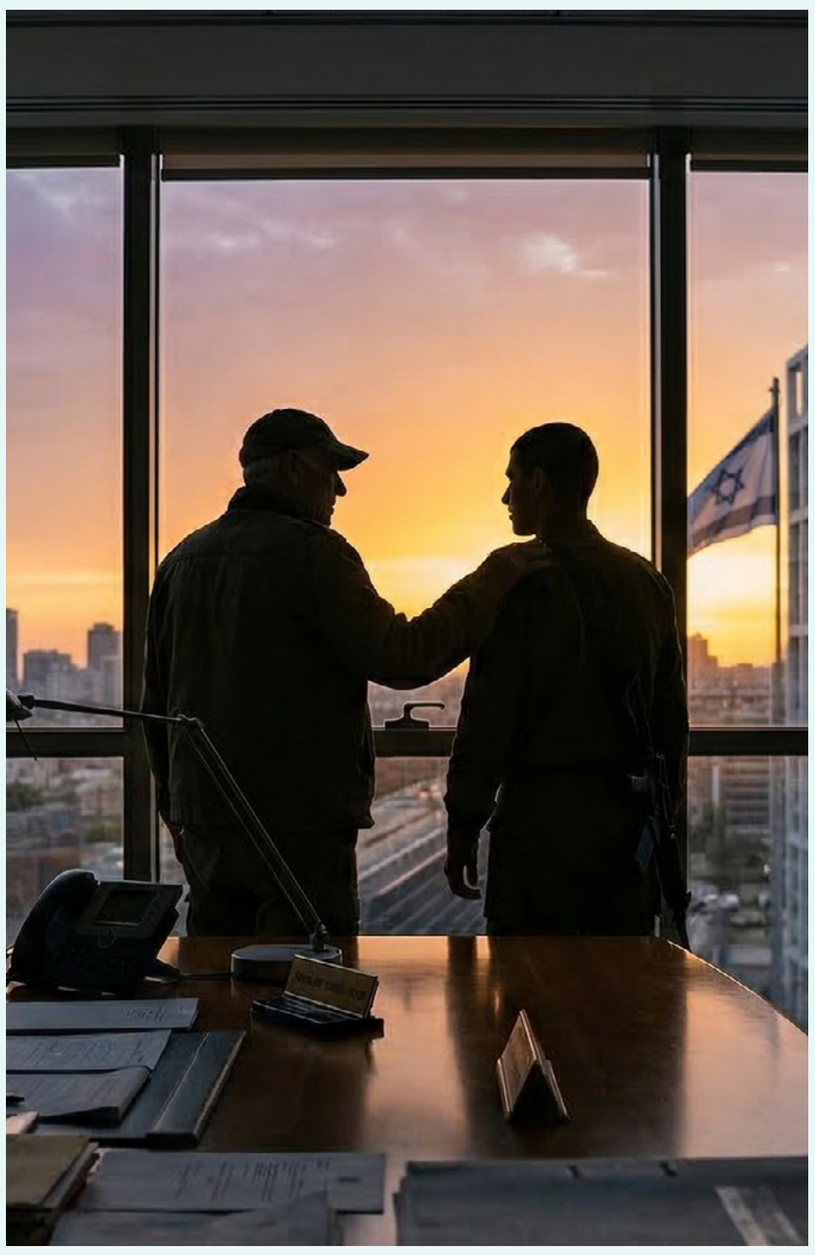
500 soldiers per year | 3-year national program

Funding

- Approved: $650K
- Matching required: $260K (40%)

Bottom Line

A scalable national model creating long-term financial independence for soldiers



War-Affected Households — Holistic Recovery Program

A one-stop-shop providing families with a single address for full recovery — across all life domains, for an entire year

Partners

Citizen Impact • The Infrastructure NGO • Ogen • Detroit Federation

What participants receive

- ☑ 12 months of adaptive, continuous support
- ☑ Holistic assessment + personalized recovery plan
- ☑ Hands-on implementation (not just referrals)
- ☑ One coordinated address across all services
- ☑ Financial • Employment • Rights • Emotional support

Scale

2,500+ households supported

Expansion: +650 households

Funding

- Cost per household: $650
- Secured: $325 (Ogen)
- Matching required: $211K
- Already committed: $60K (Detroit Federation)
- Remaining gap: $151K

Bottom Line

The only system providing year-long, integrated recovery for war-affected families

WHY THIS MATTERS

Two complementary programs addressing financial vulnerability at critical life stages:

- Soldiers - early intervention and prevention
- Families - deep recovery and long-term stability

Join us in closing the remaining funding gap and enabling hundreds of soldiers and families to achieve long-term financial resilience.

Dr. Dganit Biederman Citizen Impact

dganit@citizens-ai.com +972-52-616-5487